First Floor.

Paris-Inspired Capes and Sport Coats

A dozen styles of Coats, $10.00 to $32.50, and eight styles of Paris-inspired Capes at from $15.00 to $29.50—all just from the manufacturer.

Kaufmann again brings Paris to Richmond, Paris undiluted, Paris as Paris gives itself to Parisiennes themselves—full of gaiety and charm.

There is no one who lives more economically than the French woman. Perhaps no one spends less to be well dressed than the Parisienne.

And yet look at the Parisiennes at the races, on the Bois—everything they wear has indefinable chic. Their clothes have a certain cachet sometimes hard to duplicate in America because we cannot always get the right colors and textures in inexpensive materials.

SOCIAL and PERSONAL

A brilliant company of distinguished guests thronged the wine old rooms of the John Marshall House yesterday afternoon from 4 to 7 o'clock for the annual reception of the Association for the Preservation of Virginia Antiquities. It is always one of the leading social events of the entire season, and many handsome gowns were worn by the women in attendance. The historic home of Chief Justice Marshall was thrown open throughout, and decorated everywhere in great branches of dogwood, cherry blossoms and peach.

Stay-at-Home Whist Club.
The Stay-at-Home Whist Club met Monday evening with Mrs. J. C. Lamb on West Grace Street, and there were three tables playing. Top score was made by One Lamb and Mrs. Bland Spottswood Smith. The club will meet next Monday evening at the home of Mrs. Arthur Cannon, 324 Park Avenue.

Augustine-Harwood.
A bouquet of lilacs, yellow flowers, trailing vines and hickory candles decorated the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Whitlock Harwood, 302 North Lombardy Street, yesterday evening at 6 o'clock for the marriage of their daughter, Marie Louise, to John Augustine, Jr., the Right Rev. D. J. O'Connell, Bishop of Richmond, officiating. The ceremony took place in the drawing-room before an improvised altar of acacia leaves and candles, against a background of smilax and palms, and the kneeling stool was caught on either side with smilax forming the chancel effect. The music was done in white and yellow blossoms, and the doorways and windows were outlined in green, with wall pockets of yellow flowers. The hall was arranged with yellow flowers, festooning the stairway, and a screen of smilax and palms hid the musicians, who rendered the wedding music. In the dining-room a big basket of pink roses caught with pink chairs, and smaller baskets of pink roses, suspended by smilax and tulle from the chandelier completing the effective table decoration. The banquet was banked in ferns and pink flowers.

The bride descended the stairs with her father, who gave her in marriage. She wore a lovely gown of white charmeuse and tulle embroidered in pearls, and her veil of tulle and princess lace was arranged with elaborate blossoms. Her ornaments were pearls, and she carried a shower bouquet of gardenias and lilacs of the valley. Miss Rosalie Harwood, who attended her sister as maid of honor, was gowned in pink charmeuse with trimmings of cream-colored lace and finished with a girlish of pink roses. Her bouquet was of pink sweet peas. Harry Augustine, brother of the groom, was best man. The ribbons were held by Miss Sylvia Augustine and Miss Alfreda Harwood, who wore costumes of pink and gold. A reception was held immediately after the ceremony, which Mr. and Mrs. Augustine left for a honeymoon in Bermuda. On their return to Richmond they will be at home at 1044 Park Avenue. The bride is of Irish ancestry being a granddaughter of the late J. Hargrave, one of the oldest residents of Church Hill.

Supper Dance at Westmoreland.
An interesting social event of this week will be the informal supper dance, which takes place at the Westmoreland Club Saturday evening from 9 to 12 o'clock. The dance will be held in the sun parlor, which will be prettily arranged for the occasion, and many interesting parties will attend. It is probable that the next dinner dance of the club will be at the Greenbrier White Sulphur Springs on July 3.

Affairs of To-Day.
Several interesting functions will engage the attention of smart society to-day. John Garland Walker, of 201 West Franklin Street, is giving a stag affair at his home this evening at 6 o'clock in compliment to Henry Carter Stuart, governor of Virginia. This afternoon from 5 to 7 o'clock Mrs. John Calvin Metcalf will be at home at her residence, 601 North Lombardy Street, in connection with the affair having been issued last week.

McTear-Curie.
Mr. and Mrs. William W. Currie have their daughter, Sophie Grantland, to James Wilton McTear. The ceremony took place in Washington on Saturday, April 18.

Brilliant Musical.
A brilliant musical was given at the McMill Auditorium on Friday night, under the auspices of the Ladies Auxiliary of the Tabernacle Society. Madame Marie de Coster, pianist; Hamilton Smith, contralto; and John Winston Fontaine, accompanist, rendering the program for the evening. Madame de Coster, the star pupil of the great Camille Grunsky, who has an exquisite contralto voice, also gave a delightful program, being brilliantly accompanied by Mr. Fontaine. A large audience was present, and the applause for the artists was most enthusiastic.

Polley-Consaul.
Mr. and Mrs. Elroy Consaul, of Toledo, O., have announced the marriage of their daughter, Clara, to James Richard Polley, Jr., formerly of Richmond, but now of Cleveland. Mrs. Polley is prominently known in fashionable society of Toledo, where she has a large circle of friends, and Mr. Polley, on both his paternal and maternal side in North and South Carolina, is a direct descendant of famous Revolutionary men and women, his grandmother, Catherine Means, having been a cousin of Governor Means, of South Carolina. He is a son of Mrs. F. D. Polley, of this city.

At the Art Club.
Mrs. Edmund Lee Woodward, formerly Miss Frances Gibson, gave a fascinating talk yesterday afternoon before a large audience at the Art Club of Richmond. Her subject was "The Art of China," and very happily, indeed, did the speaker bring forth her ideas and impressions of the great art of the East, gathered during her residence in China for the past several years. Mrs. Woodward illustrated her lecture with many of the most interesting curios brought from that ancient land, and her address was one of the most charming that has been given at the club this season.

Angels in Art.
The wonderful series of Old World masters under the title of "Angels in Art," which will be presented at the Academy of Music to-morrow and Friday, with a matinee Friday, will be the leading charity event of the week. These exquisite tableaux are posed by Mrs. Henry W. Rogers, of Baltimore, assisted by Miss Miller, of Canada, and are given under the direction of the Kings' Daughters for the Sheltering Arms Free Hospital. Large audiences will throng the Academy at all three performances, and the greatest interest has been manifested everywhere in the entertainment. The tableaux are living pictures posed by some of the loveliest girls and matrons of Richmond, and the greatest care has been taken in the reproduction of the colors and detail of the famous masters' work, and the whole series unites thoroughness of plan with refinement in the treatment of parts. There is a note of distinction in the artistic conception at the basis of the whole, a conception that remains harmonious without producing the effect of monotony. The costly paraphernalia to be used has been imported from Europe, where the performances of these wonderful pictures have been the talk of the artistic world.

Miss Maria Blair gave a charming
